

14th International Conference for Nubian Studies
Musée du Louvre and Sorbonne University
Paris
From September 10 to 15, 2018

Second Circular

The Musée du Louvre and Sorbonne University are pleased to invite you to the 14th International Conference for Nubian Studies. The logo chosen for the 2018 edition features a masterpiece of the 25th Dynasty from the Louvre's Department of Egyptian Antiquities: the statue group of Taharqa and the Falcon God.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

The day of Monday, September 10 will be devoted to finalizing conference attendees' registrations at the Musée du Louvre. In the late afternoon, opening remarks and an initial keynote lecture will take place in the Auditorium. From September 11 to 14, presentations (15 min) will be held in the morning and early afternoon, on the basis of five parallel sessions at the Institut National d'Histoire de l'Art (INHA). Each day will conclude at the Musée du Louvre Auditorium with a keynote lecture (45 min) presenting an overview of a research topic. The afternoon of September 14 will be fully devoted to themed workshops as a forum for discussion among researchers. To conclude the conference, the morning of September 15 will provide an opportunity to exchange views on Site Management initiatives and the progress made in this domain, particularly with regard to QSAP.

REGISTRATION

Preregistration for the conference will be open from April 15 to July 15, 2018 by filling in a form via the conference website. You will then receive confirmation of your registration, which includes access to all of the lectures at the Louvre and presentations at the Institut National d'Histoire de l'Art, as well as coffee breaks and other conference events (registration fee: €120). The conference organizing committee will inform applicants of the outcome of their proposals after April 15, 2018.

Fees may be paid by bank transfer from April 15 to September 3, 2018 or on location at the dedicated conference registration window at the Musée du Louvre (online payment not available). You will be issued a badge giving you access to the temporary exhibitions and permanent collections of the Musée du Louvre from September 10 to 15, 2018
